

Only a Moment

For only a moment...

*They would try to stay at the inn
Soon they would find no room for Him
The manger would be the place of birth
The beginning of peace on earth*

For only a moment...

*A star stood still in the sky
While three wise men's journey came nigh
They went to worship the newborn King
For this is the anthem we sing*

For only a moment...

*The baby grew to a young boy
His Father's business to deploy
Some would call Him just a carpenter's Son
Others would know Him as the Holy One*

For only a moment...

*He set out to change history
He would become the eternal key
Miracles, healings, and stories are told
Nothing compares to the Savior's hold*

For only a moment...

*His feet graced the earth
He walked the measure of all life's dirt
He took on every single pain
So I can live a life that's not in vain*

In only a moment...

*He took the steps to Calvary
He was nailed to that bitter tree
He said, "It is finished."
For you and me*

In only a moment...

*The earth gave a violent shake
Out from the grave, Jesus made His break
All those who proclaim He is Lord
One day find Heaven their great reward!*

In only a moment...

*An epic event took place
Life was changed by God's grace
The very hands that made me
Took the time to save me*

In only a moment...

*The Christmas season will pass
Will you remember the moments that last?
Is your life more than a moment to sing?
Will this be a year for the King?*
